G Em G D7 G
 A week ago last leap year I had a strange, strange dream
 G B7 C Cm G A7 D7
 It haunted me relentlessly, oh dear, what can it mean?
 G Em G D7 G
 Maybe I'd been drinking, I really can't be sure
 G B7 C Cm G A7 D7
 But every time I closed my eyes this is what I saw

G Am D7
 Chorus: Queen Victoria riding a motorbike
 Am D7 G D7 G
 Up and down the cobbled streets of Mansfield town
 G Am D7
 Black goggles made of lace strapped around her royal face
 NC...
 Wearing her mourning veil the wrong way round (link)

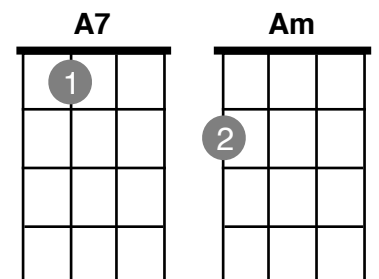

She should have been in mourning for Prince Albert, not long dead
 But there she was in Mansfield on a motorbike instead
 Her long black gown was covered in studs, she looked a little bit naughty
 Sitting astride a Yamaha — vintage 1840

Repeat chorus/link

She crashed into a bread van, her face got slightly bruised
 She grabbed the driver by the throat saying "We are not amused!"
 A policeman then approached them with notebook and pencil point
 With one hand she demolished him, with the other she rolled a joint

Repeat chorus/link

She sped away and left them lying in a heap
 Then I awoke with tears of laughter rolling down my cheek
 I used to think Victoria a proud and stately queen
 But ever since that dream the only image I have seen is —

Repeat chorus

G D7 G B7 Em
 God save our gracious queen, see her revving her machine

Repeat chorus/ending

NC = no chord
 Rhythm: jaunty swing
 NOTE: feel free to finger chord shapes your own way. The standard fingering shown is not compulsory!
